DEFINITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Club members are entitled to use the facilities of the Club, to represent the Club in competitions of any description, to compete for Club championships, to become Office Bearers / Committee members and to attend and vote at general meetings on all matters affecting the Club.

Junior Member - means a person who is less than eighteen years of age as at 31 December in the membership year and has been accepted for Junior Membership of the Club. Junior members are entitled to use the facilities of the Club, to represent the Club in competitions of any description and to compete for Club championships. They are not entitled to become Office Bearers / Committee members. They may attend general meetings but are not entitled to vote on any matter affecting the Club.

Social Member (Playing) - means a person who has been accepted for Social Membership (Playing) of the Club. Social Members (Playing) are only entitled to use the facilities of the Club and to compete in social events organised by the Club. They are not entitled to represent the Club (unless no Club or Junior member is available and they have been requested specifically to do so by the selectors) in competitions of any description, to compete for Club championships or to become Office Bearers / Committee members. They may attend general meetings but are not entitled to vote on any matter affecting the Club.

Social Member (Non Playing) - means a person who has been accepted for Social Membership (Non Playing) of the Club. Social Members (Non Playing) are only entitled to use the facilities of the Club and not compete in any bowls events organised by the Club. They are not entitled to become Office Bearers / Committee Members. They may attend General Meetings but are not entitled to vote on any matter affecting the Club.

Casual Member - means a person who is a full member (however designated) of another bowls club and has been accepted for casual membership of the Club. Casual members are only entitled to use the facilities of the Club and to compete in social events organised by the Club. They are not entitled to represent the Club in competitions of any description, to compete for Club championships, to become Office Bearers / Committee members or to attend general meetings of the Club.

Life members are those who have rendered long service or special service to the Club and may on the recommendation of the Executive Committee at an Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting, on receiving the votes of at least a two thirds majority of members present thereat, be elected a Life Member of the Club, with full privileges without payment of an annual subscription. A Life Member shall not be relieved of any other financial obligation.
